

iRevolution: A Data-Driven Exploration of Apple's iPhone Impact in India

Empathy Map – Indian iPhone Consumer

Target Persona: Urban / Semi-Urban Indian Smartphone Buyer (Age 20–40)

SAYS:

- iPhone is a premium brand.
- It's expensive but worth it.
- The camera quality is excellent.
- iPhone lasts longer than other phones.
- It increases my social status.

THINKS:

- Owning an iPhone reflects success and achievement.
- The device offers better security and privacy.
- iOS ecosystem is smoother and more reliable.
- EMI options make it more affordable.
- It's a long-term investment rather than a short-term expense.

DOES:

- Compares iPhone models with Android competitors.
- Watches reviews before purchasing.
- Checks online discounts and festive offers.
- Chooses EMI or exchange programs.
- Upgrades every 2–4 years.

FEELS:

- Excited when purchasing.
- Proud while using the device.
- Confident in brand reliability.
- Concerned about high upfront cost.
- Fear of missing out during new launches.

Pain Points:

- High price compared to competitors.
- Expensive repairs and accessories.
- Limited customization compared to Android.
- Dependency on Apple ecosystem.

Gains:

- Premium brand value.
- High resale value.
- Strong ecosystem integration.
- Long software update support.
- High camera and performance standards.